Scope

In the recent years, with the successful development and the deployment of Internet of Things (IoT) architectures, cities across the world are becoming smart Cities. As result, the quality of life of citizen has been enhanced through digitalization of many services such as transportation, buildings, healthcare, education, agriculture, etc. In this context, security and individual privacy are two important challenges that that currently affect smart cities in general around the world.

The objective of this session is to bring together researchers and practitioners to discuss recent algorithms and solutions related to security and privacy for smart cities

Authors are invited to submit previously unpublished papers to this session. Topics include, but are not limited to:

- Cloud Computing Security
- Security for Ubiquitous/Pervasive Computing
- Big Data Analytics for Smart Cities Security
- Security and privacy in the IoT

- Security and privacy in smart city
- Privacy preserving Machine learning
- Security architectures
- Security economics
- Security metrics
- AI for intrusion detection and intelligence
- Access control, Authorization, identification & authentication
- Security and privacy in social networks
- Security and privacy in web services

Important Dates

- Submission: August 20, 2019 (extended)
- Acceptance notification: August 30, 2019
- Camera-ready: September 08, 2019

Submission Guidelines

Prospective authors are invited to submit original technical papers—up to 6 pages of length, using the EDAS link: <https://edas.info/newPaper.php?c=25748&track=98462> for possible publication in the WINCOM 2019 Conference Proceedings, which will be submitted to the IEEE Xplore.

Selected papers will further considered for a special issue on "Emerging Technologies in Wireless Networks and Mobile Communication" in International Journal of Information Technology, Communications and Convergence (IJITCC).
